THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday, June 23, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR, JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

The Stay Law--Relief for the People.

We publish, to-day, the Stay Law introduced by Judge Howard, Chairman of the special Committee, as adopted by the Convention. We have not had time to give it a careful examination, but, in its general features, it is regarded as being liable to fewer objections than any which has been adopted.

We are not advocates per se of Stay laws.—We believe they have done far more harm than good. The Stay law passed during the war proved to be a serious disadvantage. Any law which violates the Constitution of the United States, and operates adversely to the interests of the creditor or unjustly upon the debtor, we cannot endorse. Any advantage gained by any portion of the community, at the sacrifice of truth, integrity and a sound morality, is sure to be a loss sooner or later.

This Stay Law adopted by the Convention, as proposed by Mr. Howard, is designed as far as possible to avoid any of the above results. It was felt to be a present and an imperious necessity, growing out of the pecuniary condition of our people, arising from the consequences of the war. On this account we are glad that the ordinance has been passed.

But can this bill effect a permanent good?—It will certainly afford present protection for the people, and guard the debtor against the hard grasp of the merciless creditor, but does it not simply put off the evil day? The evil may be mitigated by delay. Industrious, energetic men may even be enabled, by its operation, to discharge their ante-war debts entire in five years. But thousands will be deeper in debt at the end of that five years.

In those sections of the State where the lands are poor, and in which owners were able to enjoy the fruits of slave labor until the war actually closed, the condition of the people is not so bad. It is possible, that in such sections, the people might struggle through a meagre indebtedness in five years. But in those portions of the State where lands were high, and where the spirit of buying lands and negroes prevailed before and during the war, we fear many are hopelessly bankrupt.

At least three-fourths of the wealth of the State was swept off by the war. Negroes, Bank stocks and State stocks, which constituted three-fourths of the wealth of the people, have all been wiped out, leaving only one-fourth of their former available means to support their families, pay taxes, interest and principal of their debts.—Many are, therefore, in debt double their present means of paying, even if their lands or available property could be sold for its value. Under such circumstances, it is not surprising that the energies of our people are paralyzed, and if many, after anxiously looking around for every possible way of honorable escape, should listen to the ruinous and demoralizing cry of repudiation.

But would that bring relief, even if it could be effected. Who could bear the scathing rebuke of beggared widows and orphans, which would come up from all this land, if this were done? What man could hold possession of his comfortable home with ease, with a quiet conscience, while the helpless and the innocent are crying for bread, and when they could turn upon him and say "thou didst it?"

Repudiation is both grossly immoral and ruinous to the repudiator. Who could trust a repudiator ever afterwards? If it could be done, what could compensate us for the total want of confidence in each other and the demoralization it would produce?

But repudiation is neither a safe remedy nor is it necessary, even if it could be effected.—With the protection that the Stay Law affords, our people could easily settle this whole question the present year, if they will. The people of North Carolina have the means of relief in their own hands, if they will use it without recourse to repudiation or any other dishonest course. If men who are in debt are determined to hold on to all they have, regardless of the claims of integrity and honor, and of their creditors, or if creditors are determined to be rigorous and exacting, demanding the last cent, then we grant the case is hopeless.

A friend once said to us, "the North Carolina creditor is the most inexorable of all creditors,—they want," said he, "the last pound of flesh." If this spirit is to control the crediting portion of our people, we see no solution of the difficulties of our people. We are all sufferers. The interests of our people are identical, and whatever will tend to the relief of the people, though it may at present affect the creditor injuriously, may result in the good of all. If a common sympathy and a common charity for each other could be aroused in the State, our difficulties would soon vanish.

Why may not the people of North Carolina now, protected as they will be for a time by the Stay Law, adopt the New York custom of relieving those who are hopelessly in debt. In that city, if a merchant becomes involved beyond his means of paying, he at once closes his doors, makes a fair and honest schedule of all his debts and of his assets, notifies his creditors of his failure, and calls them together to settle his affairs. The creditors convene, investigate the matter and proceed to arrange for the settlement. Satisfied that if they take all the debtor has, they crush him, they agree to set apart such a portion of his effects, as will be necessary for the present necessities of his family and to enable him to start in business; the balance is divided pro rata among his creditors, and they give him a total release.

Why could not such a plan, modified to suit our circumstances, prevail in this State? Why could not the creditors agree to purchase such a portion of his effects and settle it upon his wife and children, so as to enable him to get along, and then divide the balance pro rata. If any creditor refuses to come into the arrangement, he loses all or gets what he can. Such a release from indebtedness would go further to inspirit our people and wake up their energies, than any we can imagine.

Radical Conspiracy.

The Washington Republican (Adm.) alleges the existence of a treasonable conspiracy on the part of a certain political faction at the North. It says that it is nothing less than a conspiracy to over-ride the Constitution, (that, however, is a matter of common occurrence,) under the guise of a new construction of the second paragraph of sec. 1, art. 2 of that instrument, which is in these words:

"Each State shall appoint, in such a manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress."

The Republican adds:

"The new construction is that no State is entitled to appoint any electors which shall not have Senators and Representatives in Congress at the time. Starting out upon this unsound hypothesis, the conspirators resolve that no Senators and Representatives from eleven States whose inhabitants were concerned in the recent rebellion should be admitted to seats in Congress until after 1868!

This rebellion is the key-note to the obstinate refusal of Congress to admit to their rightful seats Senators and Representatives whose loyalty was never doubted, and to the organized opposition in Congress to what is known as the President's plan of restoration."

We have all the time contended that the various pretences assigned by the Radicals for excluding the Southern representatives were altogether feigned. They know perfectly well that there is no foundation for them in point of fact,—that the States and people of the South have done all that was required of them as the legitimate preliminaries to reconciliation,—that, under the Constitution, they cannot be justly debarred. Their sole aim is to exclude, by whatever means, the Southern voice in the next Presidential election. And if every State in the South were to-morrow to ratify the proposed amendment to the Constitution, they would be as far from representation as ever. The Star Chamber plan does not propose to admit members on the ratification of this amendment.—Very far from it. The question of representation will still be open and is still to be settled by bill.

Repudiating, as an absurdity, the theory that the electoral voice of a State depends upon its full and actual representation in Congress, instead of upon the number of representatives to which the State is entitled, the Republican says that the conspiracy has yet another feature. It is held that if the Southern States should send in their electoral votes, the simple refusal of the President of the Senate to open the certificates would suffice to effect their legal exclusion. The comments of the Republican upon this are worthy to be pondered. We presume, of course, that its threats of another "conflict" apply exclusively to danger at the North. Certainly, no such apprehension is warranted of the South. Besides, we have no idea that the South will have the slightest disposition to thrust itself into the arena of another Presidential contest—particularly until her rightful position is fully acknowledged and accorded:

"We cannot contemplate any attempt to stifle the electoral voice of a State by such means without the most painful apprehensions. We greatly mistake the temper of our people if it would not provoke a conflict quite as "irrepressible," if not as bloody, as that which has just terminated."

Coming Back.

Some weeks ago, quite a clamor was created, without any foundation, in reference to the removal of some of our citizens to Illinois and Indiana. It was alleged that they were Union men, forced away from their native State by the persecutions of their political opponents, on account of their principles. We denied it at the time, and produced such an array of evidence as to silence the clamor.

We learn that some of those who left the old North State, in search of a "better land" in the North West, are returning to their old homes, tired of their adventures and anxious to take their chances for life with the people of the "tar, pitch and turpentine State." Do the persecutions of their opponents drive them back?

THE DECREE has gone forth that the South can regain Congressional representation only on condition that she will obey the Radical mandate, ordering our people to place themselves on a line with the negro. The reconstruction amendment means just that,—nothing less.—Was the infamy of a faction ever more transparent? In one breath they charge us with being too rebellious to be trusted with representation, and yet, in the very next, they stultify themselves by proposing to restore us to full fellowship with them, if we will allow the negro to vote! Thus it is, the "nigger" is their panacea for all political and moral evils.

Change of Publication.

In order to meet the new schedule on the N. C. R. Road, the Daily Sentinel will be published hereafter as an Evening paper. The first No. will be issued on Monday evening next, though in time for the Western mail. The press will be stopped after the issue for the Western mail, to make room for news by the Northern mail and by telegraph, for our Northern and Eastern mails. Our friends may rely upon our using every effort to furnish the latest news.

Col. Love's Speech.

The speech of Col. Love, of Jackson, which we publish to-day, will be read with interest by the people of the Western part of the State, who are interested in the extension of our Railroad system. Col. L. has faithfully and intelligently represented his constituency.

REMARKS OF MR. LOVE, OF JACKSON.

Delivered in the Convention of North Carolina, on the 20th. of June, 1866, upon an amendment of the State Constitution proposed by Mr. Moore, of Wake, in these words:

"That no law shall be passed to raise a loan of money on the credit of the State, or to pledge its faith or guaranty for the payment of any debt hereafter directed to be contracted, or to levy any tax upon the people, or to allow the counties to do so, unless the bill for such purpose shall have been read three several times in each House of the General Assembly, and passed three several readings, which readings shall have been on three different days, and agreed to by a majority of the whole number of the members of each House respectively, and unless the yeas and nays on both the second and third readings shall have been entered on the journals."

Mr. Love offered the following proviso, to be added after the word "journals:" "Provided, that nothing in this section shall be so construed as releasing the State from obligations incurred by the acts of 1854 and '5, and 1858 and '9, and 1860 and '1, and as preventing the Legislature from carrying into effect the provisions of said acts in building the Western North Railroad."

Mr. Love said: That, having resisted the passage of an ordinance on the same subject on its second reading, and having then moved an amendment applying generally to works of internal improvements already begun in the State, it might appear to gentlemen of the Convention that he was too persistent in his opposition in moving this second amendment to the amendment, as proposed by the distinguished delegate from Wake, (Mr. Moore.) His only motive was to promote, in his judgment, the interest of the State, and secure the completion of a great enterprise. The acts of the Legislature, referred to in his amendment, pledged the State to build the road, and the effect of the amendment, without his proviso, virtually set aside all that had been done. Bonds had been issued under said acts for the Western North Carolina Railroad, and the credit of these bonds was being sustained, like other bonds that had been issued for other Railroads in the State, by an act of the recent Legislature. He agreed, in principle, with the restriction as required in the proposed amendment of the distinguished delegate, when applied to new works of internal improvement, but to works already begun, and to the completion of which the State was pledged, it was wrong to apply the restrictions. It was an indirect attack upon the Western North Carolina Railroad, and other Railroads of the State, and an indirect way of reaching repudiation. He was glad to hear gentlemen come out boldly against repudiation and for sustaining the honor and credit of the State. No man in the State would go further than himself to sustain that honor and that credit. He had sustained the unsullied name of his State upon the battle-field, and if God knew his heart he desired that the escutcheon of his State should be kept as pure and bright as the "thrice driven snow."—He could not well see how the honor and credit of the State could be sustained without the adoption of his proviso to the amendment as proposed. Gentlemen should remember that bonds were in existence for building of Railroads in the East and middle portions of the State, and the interest accruing thereon was being paid by an act of the recent Legislature. Future Legislatures would be called upon to provide payment for these bonds, and unless a majority of the whole number of the members of each House respectively should favor the payment, the bonds would be virtually repudiated. He was for carrying out, in good faith, the pledges that had been given, and could not comprehend why additional tests should now be required upon the Western North Carolina Railroad, when they had not been required upon other roads of the State.

His amendment prevented the discrimination. It only continued what had already been done by the State. Gentlemen may deny repudiation, but in effect it is the same. At this stand point in the history of the State, it would be hard to ascertain what combination of parties may be formed, growing out of the legislation of the State. It would be well for gentlemen of the Convention to remember that the great bulk of bonds now in existence, which the people are being taxed to sustain, were created to build works of internal improvements on this side of the Western division of the State. All sections of the State are now sustaining them in good faith. Continue a hope to the people of the West, that the acts of 1854 and '55, and and 1858 and '59, and 1861 and '61, will be carried out in good faith, that additional tests will not be required, and you interest them to sustain the bonds in existence and make them anti-repudiators, but destroy the hope, pass this amendment without his proviso, and give them to understand that the faith of the State is to be disregarded as to them, and they lose all interest in sustaining the bonds now in existence.—In that event, it may be that the honor and patriotism of the West might be called for in vain, and yet there is not to be found in the broad limits of this Commonwealth a more honorable, a more patriotic people, than the hardy, industrious sons of Western North Carolina.

Gentlemen seem to think that he moved in this matter because it was a local measure.—Such is not the case. It was a great State enterprise, designed to secure the trade and travel of the Mississippi Valley. This road was the great trunk road in the State, and, when completed, would give new life and energy to other roads in the State. He, therefore, felt unwilling to place restrictions in the Constitution, which would prevent future Legislatures from carrying out laws already in existence. The Railroads of the State had been made and sustained by votes of a majority of a quorum of each House, and had the restrictions then existed in the Constitution which are now proposed, he doubted very much if any railroads would ever have been built in this State. Why not, then, continue the old mode of making appropriations or at least let no additional tests be applied to carrying out laws already in existence? Has not the best interests of the State been promoted by building these roads? Have they not done more to develope the mineral and other resources of the State, and build up villages and increase the taxable property of the State on the lines of the several roads, than any other cause?

Let us look at this for a moment: He would only use such examples as had a direct bearing upon the road in question. From official returns taken from the Comptroller's report, the landed property along the N. C. R. R., from Goldsboro to Charlotte, was valued in 1853 at $11,166,687; in 1860 was valued at $20,821,976, an increase in valuation by this line of railroad of $9,656,287; or about 90 per centum as the increased value of lands returned to the people of the State; and this line of Railway costing the State for building it $3,000,000.—From Goldsboro' to Morganton, the valuation of lands alone, in the counties through which this road passes, in 1853 was $10,768,352; in 1860 was $19,581,286. Increase in seven years $8,817,886, or about 140 per centum as increased value of lands returned to the people of the State. From Weldon to Morganton, valuation of the lands in 1853 was $9,460,233; in 1860 $27,044,175—making an increase of $17,638,942, or about 200 per centum returned to the people of the State. From Salisbury to Morganton, valuation in 1853 was $3,252,678; in 1860 $6,083,702—making an increase of $2,831,024, or 100 per centum returned to the people of the State. Cost of building this road to the State, seventy-five miles, $1,418,000, so that the mere increase of the value of lands, from building of these lines, far exceeded the cost to the State for building them. The whole cost of all these lines mentioned to the State being about five millions and ninety thousand dollars.—These are indisputable facts, based upon the official reports of the Comptroller of the State. And what do they teach us? They demonstrate, beyond a doubt, that although these roads were built by appropriations, secured perhaps in many instances only by a majority vote of a quorum, and not by a "majority of the whole number of members of each House respectively," as now proposed, that the State has suffered no loss, but has been greatly the gainer by such a policy.—He was willing to trust the future as he had the past. For ninety years the State had trusted the representatives of the people without these Constitutional restrictions, and he, so far as his reading and observation had extended, had learned of no despotic acts growing out of it. But as gentlemen of the Convention seemed to wish these restrictions imposed as to future loans and appropriations, he trusted they would only confine it to new works of internal improvement, to be hereafter commenced, and not apply it to laws already in existence, especially to acts referred to in his amendment.

He had remarked that this road was a State enterprise. Such it was, and its charter and appropriations had been secured by the liberal votes of the internal improvement men of the State. They had seen the necessity for the building of this great trunk road through the State, in order to receive the trade and travel of the Mississippi valley, and thereby impart new life to other roads of the State. And it seemed strange to him, after this road had been started for the object indicated, when the Eastern and middle portions of the State had almost a net-work of rail roads secured by loans of the State under the old Constitution, when the people of the West are looking about them with a view to its completion, if not now at some future day, they are met with the proposed amendment of the distinguished delegate from Wake, (Mr. Moore,) sustained by the report of the many able gentlemen who constitute the Committee on the revision of the Constitution, and are informed that they cannot proceed under the "old land marks" but must proceed under new restrictions. They are informed that the acts of former Legislatures, which pledged the faith and credit of the State to the building of this road, must be virtually set aside, because, perhaps, your people of the West may have power under the new order of things that is about to be inaugurated, may build this road and thus do the State a great benefit, and to prevent you from it while in Convention we will provide against such a contingency. He asked in all candor, if this was right, was it in accordance with that liberal spirit which had commenced this great work!

He had remarked that this road when completed would secure the trade and travel of the Mississippi Valley, going North and South. Other States had entered the race for this goal, and if we hesitate,—stop our road at the base of the Blue Ridge, we may expect to be outdone in the race. To secure such advantages, the Georgia railroad, between Savannah and the West, cost the State five millions of dollars, and before the war was paying into the State treasury, every month, twenty-five thousand dollars.—Virginia, at a cost of upwards of fifteen millions, and Tennessee, about ten millions, and he was unable to state the millions and tens of millions paid by the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Massachusetts, to secure a connection by railway with the trade and travel of the West. These roads, before and since the war, as far as he had been able to learn, have been paying roads.

The distinguished delegate from Richmond county, (Mr. Dockery,) when addressing the Convention, a few days since, made the statement, that something must be done to revive the railroads of the State, that the Western North Carolina R. R. was sinking to the State about a thousand dollars per month. He endorsed all that had been said by the distinguished delegate, and favored the plan submitted by that honorable gentleman, with proper safe-guards protecting the interest of the State. But we must not sit idly by and wait for other States to secure what we could gain by the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad. The State of Tennessee, since the late civil war, by an Act of her Legislature, had renewed the Charters and made liberal appropriations to meet the Western North Carolina Railroad, at or near Ducktown Copper Mines and Paint Rock. Instead of placing constitutional restrictions to prevent further loans or appropriations, the State would gain by extending her credit to complete her railroad system. The increased value of her landed interest along the unfinishd lines would more than balance the amount she would be required to appropriate. But the friends of internal improvement do not now ask for State aid. All they desire is, that these questions may stand open for future consideration by the Legislature, without imposing restrictions on the Constitution.

Gentlemen of the Convention had voted, perhaps, when this matter was before us a few days since, against his then proposed amendment, thinking to favor the plan of the delegate from Richmond. Gentlemen could be perfectly consistent and vote for his amendment, and the ordinance which had been introduced by that distinguished delegate for selling out the road to private companies or corporations. Should these companies or corporations fail to build the road, then it is the wish of the friends of this great State enterprise to avail themselves of the provisions of the Acts referred to in his amendment. He, therefore, hoped, that his amendment would be adopted by the Convention.

The recent movements in gold confound the simple, and prove that, included in that class, are the great majority of those who pass for our wise ones. Gold has been dancing a jig that has danced a great many dollars into the pockets of those who played the tune, and a great many out of the pockets of those who did not understand the music. Report says that Belmont, of New York, made over two millions of dollars in three days, by his part in the performance. A modest man would be comfortable for life on his profits for a single quarter of an hour.

AFFAIRS IN TENNESSEE.—The Memphis Avalanche says affairs have reached such a pitch in that region that unless something is done the people of the country will be afraid to come to the city for fear of being murdered. The Avalanche says murder most foul is stalking over the country, hand in hand with robbery, arson and every other crime in the calendar.

Even the Radical papers agree that Congress has determined to adjourn at an early day. Heavens grant that it may. The people are bored by the continual cackle that sounds from the Capitol. The motion for a final adjournment will be the most important and beneficial measure passed during the session.

STAY LAW.

AN ORDINANCE TO CHANGE THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS, AND THE RULES OF PLEADING THEREIN.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, That the jurisdiction of the several Courts of the State, and of Justices of the Peace, except as provided in this ordinance, shall be as in the year 1860.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That the several Courts of Law, at the Spring Terms thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, where the sum, due or owing, amounts (principal and interest) to sixty dollars or more.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That all writs in debt, covenant, assumpsit or account shall be returnable to Spring Term and be served at least thirty days [Sundays included] before the return day. Within the first three days of the return term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court to his use, one-tenth of the debt or demand (principal and interest) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court to his use, one-fifth of the residue of the debt or demand and cost, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court to his use, one-half of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, That the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter claim, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required, of what he admits to be due, and the Court shall order a jury, at the same or some subsequent term, to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon payment of one-fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury may find him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, That should the defendant fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution according to the course of the Court in 1860.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That all suits in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account issued to Fall Term of the Superior Courts, shall be returned by the Sheriffs to Spring Term, 1867, and all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, now pending in the Superior Court, shall be continued to Spring Term, and it the defendant has entered his pleas, he shall be allowed to withdraw the same, and take the benefits of section 3 of this ordinance.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That dormant judgments shall only be revived by actions of debt, and every scire facias to revive a judgment shall be dismissed on motion: Provided, That those now issued shall be dismissed at the cost of the debtor.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That the Clerks of the several County Courts shall transfer all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, now pending in their respective Courts, to the Spring Term, 1867, of the Superior Courts, and the said Spring Term shall be deemed the return term thereof and the said actions shall stand as if originally instituted in that Court.

SEC. 7. Be it further ordained, That the Clerks of the several County Courts, if requested so to do by the plaintiffs, sixty days before the Spring Terms, 1867, of the Superior Courts, shall transmit to said Spring Terms certified copies of the judgments in actions of debt, covenants, assumpsit or account entered on the dockets of their Courts, together with the writs of fieri facias or venditioni exponas issued thereon, and shall issue notices thereof to the defendants, which notices shall be served at least thirty days before said Superior Courts. At the Spring Terms aforesaid, the Courts shall on motion order the said judgments to be entered on the minute dockets, provided the same were not dormant when transmitted from the County Courts, and on such entries being made, the said judgments shall be taken and held to be judgments of the Superior Courts and writs of fieri facias and venditioni exponas may issue, as provided in section 10 of this ordinance, following the writs transmitted from the County Courts and preserving the liens, as, if issued by the same Court.

SEC. 8. Be it further ordained, That the Sheriff in each county shall return all writs of fieri facias and venditioni exponas issued from the County Court on judgment in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account to the next term of said Court, without sale; and shall return all writs of fi fa or venditioni exponas issued on similar judgments from the Superior Court or decrees of the Court of Equity on money demanded to Spring Term, 1867, without sale.

SEC. 9. Be it further ordained, That no writs of fi fa or venditioni exponas on judgments in actions of debt, covenants, assumpsit or account shall hereafter issue from the County Courts, nor shall said writs on such judgments issue from or to the Fall Terms of the Superior Courts, except in cases where defendant fails to comply with the provisions of this ordinance, and it is directed that plaintiff may proceed according to the regular course of the Court.

SEC. 10. Be it further ordained, That no writs of fi fa or venditioni exponas on judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, or decrees for money demands in Equity shall issue from Spring Term, 1867, without permission of Court, and should the defendant within the first three days pay one-tenth of the judgment or decree and costs, then the writ shall be credited one-tenth, issued and immediately returned "Indulged:" Provided, No plaintiff shall be allowed to take the said one-tenth without first entering his assent to said return: And provided further, That such assent and return shall not prejudice any lien the plaintiff may then have by virtue of said fi fa or venditioni exponas: Provided further, That at Spring Term, 1868, the defendant upon paying one-fifth of the residue of the judgment or decree and costs shall have indulgence in like manner.

SEC. 11. Be it further ordained, That upon all warrants before Justices of the Peace for a demand (principal and interest) of $25 or less, should the defendant pay one-fifth to the plaintiff or to the collecting officer for his use, he shall be allowed six months to plead, and at the expiration of said six months, should he pay as aforesaid one-half of the residue, he shall be allowed six more to plead, and at the expiration of said six months plaintiff shall have judgment and execution for the residue. Upon demands (principal and interest) of less than $60 and more than $25, the defendant shall be allowed twelve months instead of six, on each payment: Provided, That the plaintiff shall file his claim in writing, and if the defendant, on oath, shall deny the same, or present a counter claim, the Justice shall proceed to try the same. Upon judgment the defendant shall be allowed a stay of execution for six or twelve months, as the case may be, upon paying one-fifth, and afterwards one-half, as before judgment: Provided, That all Justices' judgments for $60 or more, not dormant, shall be transmitted, together with the warrant or other papers, by the Justice to Spring Term, 1867, of the Superior Court, and notice thereof shall be given the defendant at least twenty days before Court; and in the Superior Court the same proceedings shall be had as on judgments from the County Court, according to Section 7 of this ordinance.

SEC. 12. Be it further ordained, That all writs of scire facias to subject bail, issued from the Superior or County Courts, upon judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, shall be returned to Spring Term, 1867, of the Superior Courts, and should the tenth, fifth and halt of the judgments be paid from Spring Term to Spring Term, time to plead shall be allowed, according to section 3 of this ordinance.

SEC. 13. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall not apply to judgments for costs only.

SEC. 14. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall not apply to the remedies for the collection of Town, County or State Revenue.

SEC. 15. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall not apply to proceedings by attachment, unless the defendant replevy and give bail, and then and in that case the proceedings shall be subject to the provisions of this ordinance as if commenced by writ or warrant.

SEC. 14. Be it further ordained, That where the action is by or on behalf of infants, still minors at the return term, and the interest exceeds one-tenth, the first payment shall be increased to the amount of interest due, not to exceed one-fifth of the whole debt.

SEC. 17. Be it further ordained, That the provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted, or penal ties incurred, since the first day of May, A. D., 1865, or which may be hereafter be contracted or incurred, but that the remedies for the recovery of the same shall be in all respects similar to the remedies for the recovery of debts which were in force in the year 1860.

SEC. 18. Be it further ordained, That any creditor, attempted to be defrauded as set forth in sec. 1, chap. 50, Revised Code, may, without obtaining judgment at law, file his bill in Equity, and said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to direct proper issues to be made up and tried, and to make such orders and decrees as to right and justice may appertain; and said proceedings shall not affect the creditor's right to proceed at the same time at law; and any surety, before paying the debt of his principal thus attempting to defraud his creditors, may institute proceedings in equity, in like manner, to the end that he may obtain relief.

SEC 19. Be it further ordained, That every executor or administrator shall file, on oath, at the termination of two years from the time of his qualification, a full statement of his receipts and disbursements, and the condition of the assets, particularly setting out all money collected and how disbursed, and on motion the Court may allow further time to settle the estate, from year to year, not exceeding three years: Provided, That on each motion to extend the time, a supplemental statement shall be filed: Provided, That any creditor or next of kin may oppose said motion, and if the statement is not full and fair, file interrogatories which the executors or administrators shall answer, before his motion for time is allowed: Provided further, That the Court may also extend the time for pleading: Provided further, That all executors or administrators, who have heretofore qualified, shall be allowed until the County Court next after the first of January, 1867, to file his statement.

SEC. 20. Be it further ordained, That all acts, and parts of acts, suspending the operation of the statutes of limitation in the Revised Code, are hereby repealed, except as herein provided: Provided, That the time elapsed since the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, barring actions or suits, or presuming the satisfaction or abandonment of rights shall not be counted: And provided further, That nothing contained in this ordinance, or in the acts hereby repealed, shall be so construed as to prevent judgments from becoming dormant.

SEC. 21. Be it further ordained, That any Sheriff, Clerk, or other officer, failing to execute any of the provisions of this ordinance, when the execution thereof devolves on him, or issuing, receiving, or executing any process whatever contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by rule of Court, as penalties and fines were recovered in 1860.

SEC. 24. Be it further ordained, That the General Assembly shall have no power to repeal, alter or modify this ordinance until the third Monday of November, 1868, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its ratification.

Adopted by the Convention, June 21, 1866.

The minority report of the Reconstruction Committee pours a bitter contempt, in its final sentences, on those who "impeach the President's patriotism." They say: "To charge him with disloyalty is either a folly or a slander—folly in the fool who believes it, slander in the man of sense, if any such there be, who utters it."

The report is signed by Reverdy Johnson, A. J. Rogers and Henry Grider. Mr. Johnson, who doubtless wrote it, took no pains to bridle his righteous indignation against Stevens, Sumner & Co.

RATIONS FROM BALTIMORE.—Five car loads of rations arrived by the Montgomery and West Point railroad a few days ago for the destitute of Alabama. They were a part of the proceeds of the fair originated and so successfully carried through by the noble ladies of Baltimore. Their generous conduct will never be forgotten by the people of this and other unfortunate Southern States.—Montgomery Ad.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—J. M. Towles, Agent, has in store a lot of prime white corn.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., have received a large importation of sugar, of all grades.

OUR ACKNOWLEDGMENTS are tendered to Mr. A. S. Jones, Messenger of the National Express Office, and other employees of the line, for repeated favors in the way of Northern papers in advance of the mails.

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—We are pleased to learn, as we knew from the energetic and patriotic character of the managers would be the case, that this Association has taken in hand, in earnest, the sacred work entrusted to it. The most active preparations are being inaugurated to carry on the labors of the Society.

A lot of ground, generously donated for the purpose by Miss Nannie Devereux, of this City, on our North-Western suburbs, has been selected as the site of the proposed Cemetery, and is considered a judicious location. Another peice of ground was offered by one of our large hearted citizens, but the one in question was chosen.

GENERAL BUSINESS AGENCY.—We have hitherto inadvertently omitted to direct attention to the card of Rufus H. Page, Esq., of this City, offering his services to the public as a General Business Agent. We know of no one, to whom persons having business of any character to confide can more safely entrust it, than to Mr. Page. He has had long experience in business, and we do not hesitate to commend him and his Agency to confidence and patronage.

OUTRAGE NEAR EDENTON.—On Saturday, the 16th inst., Mr. Nathaniel Woodard, while riding to Edenton, was met about a mile from town by Geo. Taylor, a negro from Kentucky, who demanded his money and fired three times at him with a pistol, shattering his arm and wounding him in the breast. After which he beat him on the head with a pistol till life appeared to be extinct, and robbed him of his wallet containing ten dollars.

Mr. Woodard soon recovered so far as to return home and tell the tale, which resulted in the arrest of the negro, who awaits his trial in Edenton jail.

MASONIC.—We learn from the Banner that at a regular Convocation of Salisbury Chapter, No. 20, Royal Arch Masons, held at the Masonic Hall, Salisbury, on the 20th. instant, the following Companions were elected Officers for the ensuing year, to wit: Luke Blackmer, H. P.; John M. Coffin, S.; William Murdoch, K.; D. A. Davis, C. H.; Martin Richwine, R. A. C.; James Slater, P. S.; F. C. Schafer, M. 3 V.; George Snydam, M. 2 V.; Frederick H. Benjamin, M. 1 V.; Joseph W. Hall, Treas.; Obadiah Woodson, Sec'y. and Samuel E. Linton, Janitor.

THEY HAVE water-melons in Wilmington.—Early.

MAY FROST.—The following lines were written by the Rev. W. Hill, (father of our late venerable Secretary of State, and grand-father of Dr. Wm. G. Hill, of this City,) on the destructive frost which came on the 4th of May, 1774, on a blank sheet in his Bible:

"On the fourth of May, 1774, came the fatal frost which eclipsed the blooming vegetable world of all its splendid glory. O! may I never forget that all flesh is grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of the grass!

To day the face of nature smiles,
And charms the waking eye;
To night chill damp the air defiles,
And all its glories die.

So man may bloom in life to day,
And flourish like the spring;
To night to death he falls a prey—
Alas! how poor a thing."

Dr. CRAVEN's book gives the world such a picture of JEFFERSON DAVIS as BOSWELL drew of Dr. JOHNSON. It is to the life. We can almost see the man himself, hear his voice, and witness his sufferings and his high moral heroism. We are astonished, too, to hear one in chains, suffering for want of proper food and clothing, with "a highly inflamed carbuncle," and "a cloud of erysipelas covering the whole face and throat," with moveless and unfriendly eyes forever fixed upon him watching every motion, cut of from human sympathy, without any of the most ordinary incentives to intellectual exertion, and without any books except the Bible and prayer-book—entering into conversation on all subjects, historical, scientific, literary, military, political, religious and moral, and exhibiting as much learning and accuracy as a Professor fresh from his library and in the enjoyment of perfect health and spirits. That a man thus situated should be able so to command himself, and to speak as Mr. DAVIS did to Dr. CRAVEN, seems almost miraculous. What a fund of knowledge he has, so accurate, too, and well digested! He must, indeed, have been a close student and a profound thinker, and yet it must have been years since he found time to devote himself to books. For many, many years past he has been immersed in affairs of State, and could not have found time to bestow upon study.—Richmond Whig.

It is related that the Emperor Napoleon, when paying a visit a few days ago to the works of the Universal Exhibition, approached a group of laborers, and addressing them in a familiar tone, said that they must not believe in the rumors of war; that he himself sincerely wished for peace; and that the international fete of 1867 should not on any account be postponed.

The Boston Post remarks upon the disclosure of Dr. Craven: "The torture of an accused offender, before trial, has always been esteemed as one of the most revolting instincts of barbarism, and when employed by a civilized nation reflects disgrace on its Government or upon subordinates guilty of the unauthorized cruelty."

The Albany Journal (Weed's paper) holds that the President's signature is a necessary element in the validity of the constitutional amendment. The Radicals say otherwise.

The Mobile Tribune anounces that the Bank of Mobile and the Southern Bank commenced redeeming their circulation at par in the United States Treasury notes on the 1st of June inst.

Forney lies with an intense energy. His father and master must be overwhelmed with admiration. He says the whites are murdering the blacks all over the South, with the most ferocious vindictiveness.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

THURADAY, June 21st, 1866.

Mr. Gilliam offered an amendment, which was discussed at considerable length.

The question recurring, Mr. Smith, of Wilkes, moved to lay the whole matter on the table, which motion prevailed, as follows:

NAYS.—Messrs. Alexander, Allen, Bagley, Barrow, Berry, Bingham, Brickell, Burgin, Buxton, Bynum, Caldwell, of B., Clark, Conigland, Cowper, Dick, Eaton, Ferebee, Foy, Gilliam, Harris, of G., Jackson, Jarvis, Jones, of Henderson, Lyon, Manly, McCauley, McCorkle, McKoy, of Sampson, McDonald, of Chatham, McGehee, McIvor, McRae, Moore, of Chatham, Murphy, Patterson, Pearsall, Person, Phillips, Polk, Rumley, Rush, Smith, of Anson, Walkup, Ward, Warren, Willey, Winburne and Wright.—48.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, (by leave) introduced an ordinance in relation to the Banks of the State, which passed its 1st. and 2nd. readings. [Authorizes the Banks to exchange their specie for National Currency.]

An ordinance to amend the charter of a Fire Company in the town of Salem, N. C., passed its several readings.

The Convention then adjourned.

FRIDAY, June 22., 1866.

A resolution was reported from the committee on Finance authorizing the Public Treasurer to employ an additional clerk when necessary.

An ordinance authorizing W. B. Campbell, sheriff of Beaufort county, to collect arrears of taxes, was amended by extending the benefit of its provisions to the sheriffs of Craven, Carteret and Washington counties. The ordinance, as amended, passed its third reading.

Mr Harris, of Rutherford, from the committee to which was referred an ordinance for the relief of the people in certain Western counties, (authorizing the County Courts to borrow money) reported back the same recommending its passage.

On motion of Mr. Logan, the Convention took up the ordinance to empower the Justices of the Peace to issue bonds for county purposes. Pending its discussion, the hour of 10 A. M. arriving, the special order was announced, being the amended Constitution on its third reading.

Mr. Clark moved to lay it on the table. Not agreed to, yeas 19, nays 77.

Section 9 of the Declaration of Rights was amended, on motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, by inserting the word "petty" before the word "misdemeanors."

On motion of Mr. Ferebee, section 7. of Article II was amended by providing that members of the Senate shall have resided in the State for five years before election.

Section 8 was amended, on motion of Mr. Polk, by requiring of members of the House of Commons 3 years residence in the State before election.

Mr. Joyce moved to amend section 8 of Article II, by abolishing the property qualification for members of the House of Commons. Rejected. Yeas 46, nays 54.

Sundry other immaterial amendments were adopted, (mainly verbal) and pending further consideration, the Convention took a recess until 4 o'clock P. M.

Our Disabled Soldiers.

The following circular from Gov. Worth gives very needful and proper information to all the disabled North Carolina soldiers. Care should be taken by the Sheriffs and others, to afford them the needful information:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF N. C.,
Raleigh, June 22, 1866.

To the Maimed Soldiers of North Carolina:

Under the late act of the General Assembly providing for supplying you with artificial limbs, as soon as an establishment for the manufacture of such artificial limbs could be got up here, I issued a printed circular to the Sheriff of each County in the State, requesting him, when called upon by me, to notify the men in his County entitled to be supplied, when to come here to have the limbs fitted to the stump.—Under a previous correspondence with the several Railroad Companies of the State, I had received prompt assurance from each Company that each maimed soldier, furnished with a proper certificate, should pass free to Raleigh and home again. Each Sheriff is furnished with printed blank certificates to be furnished to each soldier to enable him to pass free over the roads and to get a limb when he arrives here. I have provided a house here, with barracks, where any soldier may stay during his necessary detention here, without expense, excepting his provisions, which he must bring with him or otherwise procure for himself.

All the counties cannot be supplied at once.—I have had the order of supply determined by lot—and the sheriff of each county will be duly notified when to summon the maimed soldiers to come, and none should come until so summoned.

The sheriffs are supplied with all needful information; but many soldiers are coming without certificates, and before they are summoned, from which much inconvenience arises.

Each newspaper in the State is requested to give one insertion to this notice and to forward account to this office for payment.

JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of N. C.

Mr. Grinnell thinks if he had not been surrounded by his friends, General Rousseau would have pushed him from the portico-steps, which his friends could not approve.

The cholera continues its ravages in Holland. The latest weekly report from Rotterdam shows 85 cases, 55 proving fatal, in the principal cities.

A correspondent of the Montreal Gazette recommends the use of the cat-o-nine-tails in the punishment of the Fenian prisoners who may fall into their hands, to which imprisonment at hard labor might be added.

The new five cent pieces are out. They are very homely things individually, though a bushel of them would be handsome.

The Freedmen of Griffin, Ga., are not proud of their Bureau. At a late meeting they denounced the Bureau as mischievous and creative of disturbances between the races. They are willing to trust to the laws of the State and to their old masters and friends for justice.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyse the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the [so called] remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure, but such a remedy is sure by wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as it has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and so invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed dose to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS,

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Cousins,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,

Because of affliction and age which renders me incapable of continuing business, I now retire from the Book trade, leaving my entire stock and interest in the hands of Messrs. Branson and Farrer—except the publication of the "N. C. Almanac," which, I trust will be received with the same favor as heretofore.

In retiring, I return my sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage which the public has chosen to bestow upon me during the last half century—the length of time in which I have been engaged in the book trade in this State—and cheerfully recommend to my old friends and patrons, my successors, Messrs. Branson & Farrer, by whom, I am sure they will be satisfactorily accommodated.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY
W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,
COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by travelling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. It, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

W. G CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars (5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.
